WITHDRAWAL OF SPRINT NEXTEL CORPORATION'S
PETITION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Sprint Nextel Corporation (“Sprint Nextel”) hereby withdraws its Petition for Reconsideration (“Petition”) filed February 5, 2007 in association with WT Dockets 05-286 and 05-302. In its Petition, Sprint Nextel requested that the Federal Communications Commission (“Commission”) reconsider its decisions denying the requests made by Sprint Nextel and Nextel Partners, Inc. for waiver of the 95% handset penetration requirement set forth in the FCC’s Phase II E-911 regulations.<sup>1</sup> The Commission did not rule on Sprint Nextel’s Petition, but instead released a Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture on August 30, 2007 finding Sprint Nextel apparently liable for failure to meet the 95% handset penetration requirement set forth in Section 20.18(g)(1)(v) of the Commission's Rules.<sup>2</sup> Sprint Nextel subsequently paid the full amount of the proposed forfeiture and successfully reached the 95% handset penetration benchmark.<sup>3</sup> As a result, the relief requested in the Petition has been rendered moot.

Accordingly, as a procedural matter, Sprint Nextel withdraws its Petition in the above-referenced matter. Please direct any questions or inquiries related to this matter to the undersigned.

Respectfully submitted,
